

My next writing goal

Fictional worked example / Use your own task and evidence

I want the reader to understand why I picked my example.

Student's choice	I want the reader to understand why I picked my example.
Starting point	October 26 response includes a relevant text detail but does not explain its connection to the answer.
Goal	By November 13, in three of my next four short reading responses, add a sentence explaining how the detail supports my answer, using the class prompt card.
Practice	Point to the question, say the connection aloud, then write it.
Support	This detail supports my answer because... plus a teacher model using a different paragraph.
Check-in	November 13: review the dated responses together.
Evidence to review	Four dated responses, with the explanation sentence underlined.
